1. INTRODUCTION:

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in its endeavor to protect the interests of investors in general, has formulated the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 [hereinafter referred to as the 'Regulations'] under the powers conferred on it under section 30 read with clause (g) of sub-section (2) of section 11 and clause (d) and clause (e) of section 12A of the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 (15 of 1992). These Regulations are made applicable to all companies whose shares are listed on Indian Stock Exchange(s).

The Board of Directors of the Company has adopted this Insider Trading Policy (the "Policy") on December 1, 2017, and subsequently amended on March 27, 2019, to comply with the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 ("SEBI Regulation") as amended from time to time.

The SEBI Regulates an Insider from Trading in the securities of a company listed on any stock exchange on the basis of any unpublished price sensitive information (UPSI). This policy also provides for Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (the "Code") that would be followed by CreditAccess Grameen Limited, for the consistent, transparent, regular and timely public disclosure and dissemination of Unpublished Price Sensitive information.

This Code of Conduct may be modified by the Board of Directors from time to time to adopt best practices and to comply with the SEBI Regulation.

To achieve the objectives as stated in SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 the Company hereby notifies that the "CODE OF CONDUCT AND FAIR DISCLOSURE FOR PROHIBITION OF INSIDER TRADING" shall become effective and operational with immediate effect. This Code shall be applicable and binding on all Designated Persons, immediate relatives of Designated Persons and those persons authorized to speak on behalf of the Company.

The Company is committed to factual, timely and accurate disclosure based on applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

3. IDENTIFICATION OF DESIGNATED PERSONS:

- a) The Compliance Officer may on consultation with the Managing Director, specify employees to be covered under the code on the basis of their role and function in the organization and the access that such role and function would provide to UPSI in addition to seniority and professional designation and shall include:
- i. Employees designated on the basis of their functional role.
 - ii. Employees of any holding or subsidiary company or future subsidiaries designated on the basis of their functional role.

4. RESTRICTION ON COMMUNICATIONS AND TRADING:

Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information (UPSI)

- a. No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI, relating to securities of the Company to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes (as set out under clause 10(G) of this Code), performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- b. No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of UPSI, relating to securities of the Company except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- c. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code, UPSI may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would,
 - i. entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company.

- ii. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
- d. For the purpose of (c) & (d) above, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of (c) above, and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of UPSI.
- e. Trading by Insiders including promoters, non-individual insiders when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information shall be governed by Regulation 4 of the Regulations.
- f. Preservation of "Price Sensitive Information"

Directors and Designated Persons shall maintain the confidentiality of all Price Sensitive Information. Directors / Designated Persons shall not pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for the purchase or sale of securities of the Company. Board of Directors of the Company shall ensure that the following practices are followed in this regard. Board of Directors shall also ensure that such information has been circulated to Compliance Officer to disclose in Public/Stock Exchange within prescribed time.

- g. "CHINESE WALL" Procedure
 - i. To prevent the misuse of UPSI, the Company shall adopt the "Chinese Wall" policy which separates those areas / personnel / departments which routinely have access to confidential information, considered part of "inside areas" from those areas which deal with sale/marketing/investment advice or other departments providing support services, considered "public areas".
 - ii. The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any UPSI to anyone in public area.
 - iii. The employees in inside area may be physically segregated from employees in public area.
 - iv. In exceptional circumstances, employees from the public areas may be allowed to "cross the wall" and given confidential information on the basis of "Legitimate Purpose" criteria, with the permission of the Compliance Officer.

5. ROLE OF THE COMPLIANCE OFFICER:

- a. The Compliance Officer shall provide clarifications sought for under the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 to all concerned, to the extent possible.
- b. The Compliance Officer shall preserve the disclosures received and submitted to the Stock Exchanges concerned for a minimum period of five years.

- c. The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board of Directors of the Company and shall provide reports on compliances of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 to the Chairman of the Audit Committee on the following:
 - i. Pre-clearance sanctioned or rejected.
 - ii. Details of transactions done pursuant to pre-clearance including those cases where no transaction has been executed after securing pre-clearance along with the reasons.
 - iii. Details of relaxation, if any from the strict requirements under this Code.
 - iv. Disciplinary actions, if any taken by Managing Director pursuant to this Code.
 - v. Disclosures under the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, if any.
 - vi. Trading plans, if any presented for approval.
 - vii. Other relevant information for each calendar quarter.
- d. The Compliance Officer shall place the aforesaid details at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held after the close of the calendar quarter.

6. TRADING PLANS:

- a. An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- b. Such trading plan shall –
 - i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insiders earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan.
 - ii. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence.
 - iii. set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - i. either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - ii. nature of the trade;
 - iii. either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
 - iv. price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - a. for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and up to twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - b. for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and up to twenty per cent lower than such closing price.; and
 - iv. not entail trading in securities of the Company for market abuse.
- c. The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of this Code or “Regulations” and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan. Further, the trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

- d. The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation.

Provided that if the insider has set a price limit for a trade under sub-clause (iv) of clause (iii) of above clause b, the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed. However, if the insider wishes to trade irrespective of the fluctuation in market price, he may not set any price limit at the time of formulation of the trading plan.

- e. The compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval.
- f. Pre-clearance of trade under clause 9(a), trading window norms and restriction on contra trade under clause 8(a) & 9(b) respectively, are not applicable for trades carried out in accordance with the trading plan approved by the Compliance officer.

7. DISCLOSURE OF TRADING BY INSIDERS:

A. General Provisions:

- a. Every public disclosure shall be made in the Form/s as prescribed under the Regulations from time to time.
- b. The disclosures to be made by any person under this code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.
- c. The disclosure of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account. Provided that trading in derivatives of securities is permitted by any law for the time being in force.
- d. The disclosures made under this Part shall be maintained by the Company, for a minimum period of five years.

B. Disclosure by certain persons

a. Initial Disclosures

- i. Every person on appointment as a Key Managerial Person or a Director or Designated Person of the Company or upon becoming a promoter or member of the promoter group shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company, as on the date of appointment or becoming such a Designated Person, to the Company, within seven days of such appointment.

b. Continual Disclosures

- i. All such persons referred under (a) above, shall disclose to the Company, the number of such securities acquired or disposed off within two trading days of such transaction, if the value of the securities traded whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees or such other value as may be specified.
- ii. The Designated Depository appointed by the Company shall notify the particulars of transactions by DPs, if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rupees ten lakh, to the Stock Exchange on which the securities are listed.

Explanation 1 – Based on the SEBI Circular No. SEBI/HO/ISD/ISD/CIR/P/2020/168 dated September 09, 2020, for Automation of Continual Disclosures under Regulation 7(2) of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (System driven disclosures), the Company shall appoint a designated depository and with whom the Company shall share the list of DPs and PAN from time to time.

Explanation — It is clarified for the avoidance of doubts that the disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure under this sub-code, shall be made when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold specified in clause b. (ii) above.

- i. Designated Persons shall also furnish the names of educational institutions from which Designated Persons have graduated and names of their past employers.
- ii. Designated Persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent account number, or any other identifier authorized by law of themselves and the following persons to the Company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:

 - c. Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them.

“Material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift from a designated person during the immediately preceding 12 months, equivalent to at least 25% of the annual income of such designated person but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.

c. Disclosures by other connected persons

The Company may, on its own discretion, require any other connected person or class of connected persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in securities of the Company and at such frequency as may be determined by the Company in order to monitor compliance with this Code.

d. CreditAccess Share Dealing Code

No Designated Person including his/her Immediate Relatives shall either on his/her own behalf or on behalf of any other person, trade or undertake to trade or cause to trade in the Securities of the Company (i) when he/ she is in possession of any UPSI and (ii) during the Prohibited Period under paragraph 8(a) of this Code.

8. PROHIBITION ON DEALING, COMMUNICATING OR COUNSELING ON MATTERS RELATING TO INSIDER TRADING:

No Insider shall either on his own behalf, or on behalf of any other person, trade in securities of the Company when in the possession of any unpublished price sensitive information; Communicate, counsel or procure, directly or indirectly any unpublished price sensitive information to any person. However, these restrictions shall not be applicable to any communication required in furtherance of a legitimate purpose (as set out under clause 11 (G) of this Code), performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

The Company may require any person to maintain a structured digital database containing details like the names of persons who have shared the UPSI, the nature of UPSI shared and the names of such persons with whom UPSI is shared along with their PAN or such other identifier authorized by law, as the case may be, which shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks.

9. TRADING RESTRICTIONS:

All Designated Persons of the Company and their immediate relatives shall be subject to trading restrictions as enumerated below: -

a) Trading Window

The period prior to declaration of price sensitive information is particularly sensitive for transactions in the Company's securities. This sensitivity is due to the fact that the Designated Persons will, during that period, often possess UPSI.

During such sensitive times, the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives will have to forego the opportunity of trading in the Company's securities.

The Compliance officer or any other employee from the Company Secretarial department of the Company will notify the Designated Persons about closure and opening of trading window and also inform the stock exchanges.

The Designated Persons of the Company and their immediate relatives shall not deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is closed. The period during which the trading window is closed shall be termed as prohibited period. It is the duty of the Designated Persons to inform the immediate relatives of the closure of trading window and ensure that they do not deal in the securities of the Company.

The trading window shall also apply to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company such as auditors, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

- b) The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed at the time of:
- i. Declaration of Financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annual)
 - ii. Declaration of dividends (interim and final)
 - iii. Issue of securities by way of public/ rights/bonus, etc.
 - iv. Any major acquisition/ expansion plans or execution of new projects
 - v. Amalgamation, mergers, takeovers and buy-back
 - vi. Hearing/Judgment of Litigation/dispute with a material impact;
 - vii. Any information which, if disclosed, in the opinion of the person disclosing the same is likely to materially affect the prices of the securities of the Company.
 - viii. The trading window shall be closed by the Compliance Officer when he is of the firm belief that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI.
- c) The period of closure shall be effective from the end of every quarter, till 48 hours after the financial results is submitted to the Stock Exchanges.
- d) The trading window shall be opened after 48 hours of the information referred in Clause 9(b) is made public.
- e) All Designated Persons of the Company and their immediate relatives shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only during the free period and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the prohibited periods.
- f) Trading window restrictions shall not apply in respect of –
- (i) Off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of same UPSI without being in breach of SEBI Regulations and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision. Such trades shall be reported by the insiders to the Company within 2 working days.
 - (ii) Transactions carried out through block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of UPSO without being in breach of SEBI Regulations and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.
 - (iii) Transaction carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.
 - (iv) Transaction undertaken pursuant to exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.
 - (v) Trades pursuant to a trading plan.
 - (vi) Pledge of shares for a bona fide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer.

10. PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES:

Any Designated Person (including immediate relatives) of the Company, who intends to trade in the securities of the Company during free period shall seek pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer, as per the pre-dealing procedure as described hereunder, as stipulated by the Board of Directors from time to time.

No Designated Person and their immediate relatives shall apply for pre-clearance of any trade if such person is in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information even if the trading window is not closed.

a) Pre-dealing Procedure

An application for pre-clearance of trade shall be made to the Compliance Officer in the prescribed format along with an undertaking (UT) in favor of the Company by such Designated Person and/or their immediate relative incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:

- i. That the Designated Person do not have any access or has not received "Price Sensitive Information" up to the time of signing the undertaking.
- ii. That in case the Designated Person has access to or receives "Price Sensitive Information" after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he or she shall inform the Compliance officer of the change in his position and that he or she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
- iii. That he or she has not contravened the provisions of this Code or Regulations as amended from time to time.
- iv. That he or she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- v. The Compliance Officer shall on receiving an application provide the Designated Person with an acknowledgement on the duplicate of the application.
- vi. The Compliance Officer shall grant approval within 2 days from the date of acknowledgement.
- vii. The Compliance Officer shall retain copies of all applications and acknowledgements.
- viii. In exceptional circumstances consent may not be given if the Compliance officer is of the opinion that the proposed trade is on the basis of possession of any UPSI. There shall be no obligation to give reasons for any withholding of consent.
- ix. If so requested by the Compliance Officer, Designated Person must ensure that his stockbroker is authorized to disclose to the Company all matters relevant to his share dealings.

b) Other restrictions

- i. The Designated Person and their immediate relatives shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If the order is not executed within one week after the approval is given, the Designated Person must pre-clear the transaction again.
- ii. The Designated Person and their immediate relatives shall hold their investments in securities for a minimum period of six months irrespective of mode of acquisition in order to be considered as being held for investment purposes. The Designated Person permitted to trade shall not be permitted to execute a contra trade within a period of six months from the date of said trade. Provided that this restriction shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of Stock Options under the ESOP scheme of the Company.

- iii. In case the sale of securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the Compliance Officer may waive the holding period after recording in writing his or her reasons in this regard. An application for waiver of holding period shall be made to the Compliance Officer.
 - iv. In case where any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of the restriction, the profit from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.
- c) Half yearly / Annual Disclosures

In addition to disclosures mentioned under Clause 5 or Clause 6 of this Code, all Designated Persons of the Company shall be required to forward following details of their Securities transactions, including the holdings of immediate relatives, to the Compliance officer:

- i. All holdings in securities of the Company at the time of joining the Company.
 - ii. In respect of Designated Persons, all holdings in securities of the Company as on the date specified by the Compliance Officer.
- d) Records of disclosures received by the Company

The Compliance Officer shall maintain records of all the declarations in the appropriate format given by the Designated Persons for a minimum period of five years.

The Compliance Officer shall place before the Board of Directors, on a quarterly basis all the details of the dealing in the securities by the Designated Persons of the Company.

11. CODE OF FAIR DISCLOSURE AND CONDUCT:

- A. The Company,
- i. Shall make prompt public disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available except when otherwise required for the purpose of maintaining the confidentiality of the information.
 - ii. Shall ensure uniform and universal dissemination of unpublished price sensitive information to avoid selective disclosure.
 - iii. Shall designate any Senior Officer as a Chief Investor Relations Officer to deal with dissemination of information and disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information.
 - iv. Shall make prompt dissemination of unpublished price sensitive information that gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise to make such information generally available.

- v. Shall give appropriate and fair response to queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumors by regulatory authorities.
- vi. Shall ensure that information shared with analysts and research personnel is not unpublished price sensitive information.
- vii. Shall develop best practices to make transcripts or records of proceedings of meetings with analysts and other investor relations conferences on the website of the Company to ensure official confirmation and documentation of disclosures made.
- viii. Shall ensure that all the unpublished price sensitive information is handled on a need-to-know basis.

B. Basic Principles of Disclosures

Procedures governing the disclosure of Material Information required to be disclosed shall provide that such disclosure shall be made in accordance with the following principles:

- i. Information should be disclosed immediately through the stock exchanges and press release. No selective disclosure. Previously undisclosed unpublished price sensitive information must not be disclosed to selected individuals. If previously undisclosed information is inadvertently disclosed to an analyst or any other person, such information must then be disclosed to the stock exchanges immediately.
- ii. Under certain circumstances, the Company may determine that such disclosure would be unduly detrimental to the Company (for example if release of the information would cause prejudice to negotiations in a corporate transaction), in which case, the information shall be kept confidential until the Company determines it may be publicly disclosed. Information should be disclosed only once there is credibility to the information and the information has concretized.
- iii. Disclosures should be made in a timely manner.
- iv. Disclosure must be complete in all material respects and should not be misleading.
- v. Unfavourable Material Information must be disclosed as promptly and completely as favourable information.
- vi. Disclosure must be corrected immediately if the Company is subsequently made aware that its earlier disclosure contained a material error or omission at the time it was given.

C. Disclosure of Material Information

The Company shall disclose Material Information concerning its business and affairs to the public immediately, except when otherwise required for the purpose of maintaining the confidentiality of the information. This Code is to enable all persons investing in the securities of the Company to have the opportunity for equal and timely access to information that may affect their investment decisions regarding those securities.

This Code further provides that, once there is credibility to the information and once the information has been set out to a level of concretization, the information would be disclosed by the Company in a timely manner.

D. Process of Disclosures of Material Information

In case any Head of Department or senior employee becomes aware of some Material Information about the Company, the said employee would contact the Managing Director and CFO of the Company.

The Managing Director and CFO in consultation with the CISO and/ or the Company Secretary would then determine whether the information requires disclosure to the stock exchanges or not in accordance with the Listing Agreements. Thereafter, the Company Secretary and the CISO with the help of the concerned head of department will prepare the content of the disclosure and determine the timing of the disclosures. Thereafter, the Company Secretary will disclose the said information to the stock exchanges. The CISO shall ensure that the said information is thereafter properly disseminated to the public as deemed necessary.

E. Delay in Disclosing Material Information

Under certain circumstances, the Company may keep Material Information confidential for a limited period of time because immediate disclosure may compromise certain strategic business opportunities of the Company or may not be disclosable due to third-party confidentiality restrictions or uncertainty of events.

The determination of when to not disclose Material Information immediately shall be made by the MD and CFO of the Company.
